

Gringo Times

Hats are a great way to keep the sun off your face. Try out one of these snazzy Gringo Times Palm Hats made to order on our very own Sosua beach. Costing less than $10 (if you mention the Gringo Times, Garcia Rosario can knock you one up in less than 10 minutes, and you get to watch a true artist at work.

These are the latest head-gear in most of the top, trendy nightclubs, so wearing one will identify you as a cool dude (or dudette).

Step 1: Find bits of palm fronds as they are the main component of the Gringo Palm Hat. Palm fronds can normally be found hiding in palm trees.

Step 2: Start twisting bits of aforementioned palm fronds together.

Step 3: Make palm fronds into shape as shown above. If shape is not correct, have another beer and go back to previous step.

Make your own Palm Hat

Step 4: Keep twisting palm fronds.

Step 5: Make shape as shown above. If shape does not look correct, order another beer or make something else.

Step 6: Work slowly and methodically to ensure the palm fronds remain docile.

Step 7: Keep weaving to break down the fronds' resistance. Use mind-control to isolate any troublemakers.

Step 8: Take periodic rests to reserve energy for the frenzied finishing steps.

Step 9: Hat should now look hat shaped. If it does not, order a cuba-libre, and go back 3 steps. Step 10: Making Gringo Palm Hats is fun, so remember to enjoy it.

Step 11: Relax and enjoy reading your copy of the Gringo Times, while wearing your great new piece of headgear.

The hat will dry out over time and soon you will have a beautiful golden brown Gringo Palm Hat (shown below).
